Thank you so much for inquiring about using our community classroom!

For this space, we want to focus on events that align with our mission. Use of our space is available to individuals and groups offering:

- Textile-art-based classes or workshops
- Upcycle classes or workshops
- Textile-art-based clubs or groups
- Textile diversion education or workshops
- Non-profit programming

Is there a fee to rent out the classroom?

Ragfinery does not currently charge a fee for use of our classroom space. We ask that if you are collecting payment for workshops etc., that you make a donation to Ragfinery to support our mission in an amount that feels affordable for you.

When can the space be used?

The classroom can only be used when Ragfinery is open: Tuesdays- Saturdays from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm. Reservations are made on a first come first served basis and Ragfinery's programming has priority scheduling.

How many people can use the space?

We ask that you limit your attendees to 10 people.

What is included, do I need to bring my own supplies?

We offer the space, tables, and chairs during classroom rental time. All groups, workshop instructors, and individuals must bring all the materials and tools necessary for their own activities. We have a supply of tools, sewing machines, scissors etc. but their use is only available to Ragfinery staff and during our open Community Classroom times.

Will Ragfinery help fill my class?

No, but we are happy to share sign up information on our social media! It is the instructor's responsibility to fill, schedule, advertise, teach and every other aspect of hosting classes.

Will a staff member or volunteer be able to help?

No, Ragfinery staff will be busy minding the shop, sorting and sewing. We respectfully ask that you maintain charge of all activities and needs. If you have any questions while in the space, please contact Rue at 248-756-8797. If there is an emergency, please alert an employee.

How can I reserve the classroom?
